

The Cove

Black Country Communion

Won't you come with me
Down to the ocean tonight
I'll be your Devotee
Down by the Shoreline Starlight

All I ask from you is
To comfort me
I hold my breath, and my heart
Fill my life with Humanity
Out in the Blue torn apart

Moon is shinin' down
Into the deep it's so cold
And I wear a frown
Lonely the mermaid untold

But they don't hear
And I watch them fall
The big and the small suffocate
Beyond the fear
I can hear them crawl
Lost in a tidal vibrate

From the Sea to the Mountains
Oh my Soul it will cry
Under the boat
That was drove

Face to Face
With the Dolphins
We are Eye to Eye
I'm out on the ledge
In the cove

I won't delay
Won't you let me in?
Down in the bed I am gone
Hear me when I say
In my Soul within
I've never felt so alone

From the seat to the mountains
Oh my Soul it will cry
Under the boat
That was drove

Face to Face
With the Dolphins
We are Eye to Eye
I'm out on the ledge
I'm the cove

So alone in the silence
But they're lost in the wave
Cast in the dream
That was a wove

And I can't go on living
I will take to my grave
I'm out on the ledge
In the cove

In the Openness
I see the lovers, they drown
In the darkness
Call of the Siren
Shut down

Oh, shut down

Ohhh
