

STATIC

Black Dresses

Nooooo!
Okay!

Okay
Never again!
Motherfucker

I can never go back
If you think it's okay, you can kid yourself
You can drink your own blood, I'll never kill myself
This is the shit I said I always fucking dreamed about
But I know that it's something different 'cause it's something else

I'm underwater...
Floating over...
What I am...

Black and white high-contrast manic
Where'd I put my soul in all this static?
So fucked up, but honestly
I've never felt more alive
Rotting flesh, I float above it
How did I ever become this?
Damaged, glowing, dying, soulless
Monster in a dream that's fading fast

It's electromagnetic noise
Or it's just smoke from the sky
And it burns in my eyes
And it's so hot that I'm barely alive
I feel reality bend
'Cause I can't catch my breath
It's fucked up, it's been days since I slept (It's been forever)
(Yeeeeah!)

Black and white high-contrast manic
Where'd I put my soul in all this static?
So fucked up, but honestly
I've never felt more alive
Rotting flesh, I float above it
How did I ever become this?
Damaged, glowing, dying, soulless
Monster in a dream that's fading fast

I'm underwater
I'm sinking fast
Being dissected
I'm in heaven, seeing hell through stained glass

I tried so hard to kill the past
