

WOUNDED ANIMAL

Black Dresses

Watch yourself
Some things are now or never
I think I'm finding out
I think I'm learning lessons
I think I waste a lot
I think I learned a lot
Every time I think I learned my lesson, I think I'm wrong

Watch yourself
Some things are now or never
I think I'm finding out
I think I'm learning lessons
I think I waste a lot
Think I learned a lot
Every time I think I learned my lesson, I think I'm wrong

Glowing in the sunset
Holding hands with an unknown source
Like a specter
Like an angel
The light wet spring air is fresh and cold

And the days behind all look the same
Wounded animal freaking out on tape
Get so annoyed when people say
"The more things change
More they stay the same"

Another year goes by, I'm still afraid
Five years and a half-year since the day
Mailed all my things and caught a plane
Got a band out there, maybe things will change
Six years since California days
Seven years and a half-year since I made
Such a stupid obvious mistake
Wherever you are now, I hope you're okay

Falling apart
Circling around
Crying for help
Can't make a sound
I think we're safe for the moment
I think I need to hold your hand

Glowing in the sunset
Holding hands with an unknown source
Like a specter
Like an angel

The light wet spring air is fresh and cold

And the years behind all look the same
Wounded animal freaking out on stage
Get so depressed when people say
"The more things change
More they stay the same"

Falling apart
Circling around
Crying for help
Can't make a sound
I think we're safe for the moment
I think I need to hold your hand

Nine years since I got a new name
Swore that I'd never be the same
But I'm still running to this day
Dreaming of killing yesterday
Every time I look up at the sky
Still looks the same as in my mind
Dumb kid trying to be somebody else
When will she learn there's nothing else
