

Lies

Black Flag

Fell a little pain, we'll heal ya
Fell a little lost, we'll save ya
Feel a little panicked, we'll calm you
Got a little sinned, we'll shame you

Have on you some blood, we'll tame you
Got a little cash, we'll take it
Got a little odd, we'll break it
Got a little locked up, we'll feed you lies

Paid all the damage you've done
Emotional rescue for mass conceal
Your lies, I just won't listen to you
Distortions cannot obscure what's real

Want a little fun, we'll bore ya
Feel a little weird, we'll tease you
Want a little freedom, we'll cage you
Got a little blood, we'll suck you dry

Got a little dream, we'll wake you
Got a little vision, we'll blunt you
Have a little fun, we'll splash it
Have a little truth, we'll twist it

Have a little power, we'll drain you
Do a little wrong, we'll blame ya
Feel a little fear, we'll hunt you
Grab a little faith, we'll lead you astray

Paid all the damage you've done
Serenity allow mass conceal
Your lies will wash the blood from your hands
Distortions cannot obscure what's real

I live with my anxiety and my eyes
Purple key and my fear and my doubt
It's just that I despise what you possess

Got a little pain, we'll heal you
Got a little panicked, we'll calm you
Feel a little lost, we'll save you
Have a little sin, we'll shame you

Got on you some blood, we'll tame you
Got a little hug, we'll break it
Got a little cash, we'll take it
Got a little hurt, we'll hurt you back
