

Loose Nut

Black Flag

Loose nut in my head.
Loose nut rattling my skull.
Crying for a human touch,
Or anything that'll reach my soul.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut, I want head.
The loneliness I dread.
Loose nut, you can help.
Be with me so I don't hurt myself.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut, no bolt fits.
My head is giving me fits.
Loose nut lookin' for diversion,
Just anything that will let me stick it in.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Don't mind my crazy smile,
But gimme the phone so I can dial.
I'll be back in just a little while
As soon as I get some vertical smile.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.
I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.

Loose nut in my head.
A bolt of lightening between my legs.

I can't think straight; my mind's a mess.
I only see straight when I'm being led.
