

Obscurity

Black Heaven

Im lost in velvet darkness
My life is so unreal
And every day is a challenge
I cant live what I feel

Im lost in my depression
So far away from truth
Im searching for existence
Im still searching for you

Everything could be untrue
And I put all my trust in you
Insanity is filling me
My life is an obscurity

I dive into the ocean
Of thousand salty tears
The sky is full of danger
And I wait for you, my dear

When all my faith is broken
And the night defeats the pain
So let me dream of freedom
Cause everything remains the same
