

I Only Hurt The Ones I Love

Black Honey

Cry cry baby
Cry cry baby
I'm not your baby

Broken teeth like bad ideas
Brought us to our knees
Hard luck born in a hurricane
Bad things come in threes

I saw the world fading into your skin
And the sky as it's starting to spin
I'll cross your heart and hope to die
I'll break it just like you broke mine

So you can cry for me baby
Cry, cry baby
Cry for me baby
I'm not your baby
I only hurt the ones I love
I only hurt the ones I love

We're playing war inside the flame
There's nothing left to say
I can't unring that midnight bell
It's the road we chose to take

Take a breath, we're forgetting to breathe
Make a sound, break the silence in me
I'll cross your heart and hope to die
I'll break it just like you broke mine

So you can cry for me baby
Cry, cry baby
Cry for me baby
I'm not your baby
I only hurt the ones I love
I only hurt the ones I love

Cry for me baby
Cry, cry baby
Cry for me baby
I'm not your baby
I only hurt the ones I love
I only hurt the ones I love

Between what is right and what is real
I only took what I could steal, yeah
I had to do what I have done
'Cause I only hurt the ones I love

So you can cry for me baby
Cry, cry baby
Cry for me baby
I'm not your baby
I only hurt the ones I love
I only hurt the ones I love

Cry for me baby
Cry, cry baby
Cry for me baby
I'm not your baby
I only hurt the ones I love
I only hurt the ones I love
