

Left For Dead

Black Lab

You haunt me every day.
The world becomes your face.
I know I'm left in your arms.
Do you remember how I swore I'd burn it down
If I could tell you my heart?
I can't be your sin.
I'm not alone.
I can't be your saint.
Where do I belong?
Take whatever's behind me.
I'll be left for dead.
Take whatever's behind.
I've taken every hope.
Yeah everything I own.
I put it all in the game.
So would you really call?
Show your hand and take it all?
Could you walk away?
Cause I don't believe it.
I'll carry on but I don't accept.
Where do I belong?
Take whatever's behind me.
I'll be left for dead.
Take whatever's behind.
It's hollow.
I traded everything for love.
It's hollow this waiting.
I wait for you to say you've changed your mind.
Take whatever's behind me.
I'll be left for dead.
Take whatever's behind.
