Surrender

Black Lab

On the day you die the angels hold a wake and drink until it sn ows.
So let yourself cry let your body shake cause everybody knows.
After the fall you let it go.
All by yourself.
Surrender.
After the fall you let it go
‘Cause nobody else can surrender.
Will you surrender?
My eyes are on god.
I find that she is you.
Am I your crown of thorns?
Cause I’ll be your dog scratching at your shoes.
You watch as I perform.
After the fall you let it go.
All by yourself.
Surrender.
After the fall you let it go ‘cause nobody else can surrender.
Will you surrender?
And this kite won’t go.
This kite won’t go the wind tears it apart again.
Will you surrender?
And this tide won’t go.
This tide don’t go till you know that it’s over.
Will you surrender?
