

Hell And Fire

Black Label Society

Alone in silence
You held your doubts
That this ride had reached its end
The fear of what tomorrow'd bring
And all that had been

For you, I'd walk through hell and fire
Now and Forever more
For you, I'd walk through hell and fire
The door is open
But the ride ain't free
Hell and fire forevermore

As a shadow cast upon your hopes
And you faith it starts to fade
Looking back on where it all began
Can't go back to yesterday

Where have we gone?
Where do we go?
You say you've had enough
You say that you're done
For the verse may end a new
Chapter has begun
