

Wayne

Black Lips

Wayne
What did you had to gain?
You started just like us
But then you broke our trust

Oh, Wayne
You did it for the fame
You always knew you'd be
A lose celebrity

Oh, Wayne
You'll never feel the pain
You'll never feel the rain
In Heaven we're the same

In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same

It isn't true
Was it them or you?
What you said about the man
Strung up by the Klan?

Oh, Wayne
With no more cards to play
That was a lovely story
About the CIA

Oh, Wayne
You'll never feel the pain
You'll never feel the rain
In Heaven we're the same

In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same
In Heaven we're the same

Oh, Wayne (you lost the treads of play)
Oh, Wayne (you never take the blame)
Oh, Wayne (you'll never be the same)
Oh, Wayne (you'll never be the same)
