

Dragons Unite

Black Majesty

One survived against humanity
Hidden away from all the world to see
Let the prophecy prevail
On the wind of destiny
And the oath of blood is given
In the seas of immortality

With wind filled wings
He breathes flames that give life

Fire and brimstone
Dragons unite
To fight in the sky
The night is yours
For the taking
Raise hell spawn
Dragons unite
And then take to flight
The dragons have taken to flight

Fallen ones
Rise from the ashes
Walk through the fire
Let give the fire birth
It was written on the wind
It's your legacy you're right
Take your first breath
And give in the flames of immortality
