

Make Believe

Black Majesty

Some may wanna watch the world burn
They're not caring anymore
Building dreams in castles
Then they're tearing them all down
Some may want to catch the rainbow
They are living fantasies
Dreaming of an eden
When they're watching their tv

Welcome back to reality
Destiny waiting
Walk through the door

Make me, make me, make believer
I can't be another dreamer
Brightly coloured memories if yourself
Can make believe it
Make me, make me, make believer
I can't be another dreamer
Shimmering stars wish them as they fall
Now that you are free
Take this world and make believe

Some may want to live in darkness
They have lost the will to fight
Burning all their bridges
Now they're living on one side
Some they surely love their preachers
They love listening to their words
Putting them on alters
While their life is lost in hell

Stars are falling
Rainbows forming
Set yourself free in this world
You can make believe again
