I Think I'm Evil

Black Moth Super Rainbow

Dizzy, dizzy, lips so sticky
Tasting, tasting everything
Lemon, lemon, I'm in heaven
Tell me, tell me anything

You, you, you, you get softer every summer
And I, I, I, I get darker every morning
And you, you, you, you're gettin' stranger, it's contagious
And I don't think that anyone can change us

I think I'm evil now
'Cause I'm already sweatin' you out
You make me paranoid
But I love bein' thought about
You made the sun go down
But I sparkle in the night
You should run with me
'Cause runnin' makes everything alright
