Y'all can have the summer
Top down in the winter with it
Might cop a crib with a pool in it
Just to have your favorite model skinny-dipping
And it really wicked
That's why your jawn wanna kick it with us
I had to switch up the lingo on her
Smoking natural green so my niggas
Everybody like squad, squad, squad, but are they really wit' you?
Arkansas to worldwide, finna show 'em how to really flip it
They know we good in every hood and we great in every state
I might flight out to Japan just to cop some Human Made, yeah

And I kick and push it like Lupe
Twelves in the truck playin' like Boosie
Hatin' will knock off your toupe
Off of the lucid, for real, man
I might hit the beach for a week
Treat the old game like it's Vegas
They know I'm playin' for keeps
Don't take my kindness for weakness (Oh no, oh no)
I bring the word to these streets quick
Don't say, "Now you owe me"
That's the code if you ain't know it
Samurai brought the drink through
So you we back reloaded (Pass me my phone)
No, I can't pick up the phone
If the call ain't important, nah (Let's go)

Could give you the syllabus, still can't keep up, bitch, here go the rubric

You know how I'm rockin', no ho in my bones
Been ten toes since two cellphones
And I only push whips that's wrapped two-tone
Respect my pimpin'

Went blonde on 'em like I'm Rodman in '94
Switch sides, we ain't never did that
Gotta keep it on me like the switch
Know they heard no small talk
Blowin' good dope and countin' racks
I'm just tryna live out a dream
Grandma wanna see me on the screen
Gotta get it in by any means
Can't nobody intervene
Built this shit brick by brick
Pulled a old school out garage
It's about to be an event
(Hahaha)
