

I Love You More Than You Know

bLack pARty

Way you look at me
I feel you on stage (I feel you on stage)
On tambourine, so sublime

I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know

I love you more than you know
I never thought I'd see forty, I hope there's forty to go
Might die tomorrow, who knows
Your mama says you was grown, was tryna buy you new clothes
That Bode knowing you probably grow out, I'm sure they do fit
And daddy shoes was oversized, grew into one quick
The deepest blue when daddy died, the ocean was jealous
I'm tryna be around a little longer than my father
And my father's father, why even bother
If time is water, you ankle deep
Elmo floaties, bubbles of life uncertain
I'm driftin' off to the falls and struggle to fight the current Wishin' that I could pause
God let me borrow that universal remote
With no rehearsal they wrote a whole verse
That's the earth we get served with no regrets
With no shoes and no shirt and that's birth
I never meant to make the thing hurt, but what's worse?
We never meet at all? Never nah

When we escaped to the beach (Let's make a great escape)
Watchin' the waves crash (Watchin' the waves crash)
Just you and me (It's just you and me)

Oh, I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know

Summer time, plantin' seeds (You and me plantin' seeds)
Waitin' to see our garden grow (See our garden grow)
In the spring

Oh, I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know
I love you more than you know

Uh, uh, uh, uh, more than you know
Oh, I love you more than you know
I love you more than you, mm
Mm-mm, mm-mm, mm
