

Swang My Way

bLack pARty

Always get a warm feeling when I'm with you
Like I'm a kid again
Just playing in the rain
And lately, I've been living in a daydream
Just caught in the day
I guess I'm stuck in my way
Never had nothin' that was sweeter than a mango
Except for you
Oh, except for you
You never ever ever gotta worry 'bout a thing though
Because I care for you
I'm always there for you

And everyday I be thinking 'bout you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Everyday I be thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way
Thinking of you
Dreaming of you
Won't you swang my way

Where you at?
Can you come over?
I really hate sleeping alone
I really hate sleeping alone
Where you at?
Can you come over?
I really hate sleeping alone
I really hate sleeping alone
Where you at?
Where you at?
Where you at?
Where you at?
Can you come over?

Yo, yo, I really appreciate everybody who helped me work on this
That means a lot to me
And yo, if you're listening to this right now, I really appreciate you
That means the world to me, for real
