

King

Black Peaks

King in the night, open your eyes
The wolves at your heart
They're feeding on your black veins
Tracks in the snow leading you home
The wolves in the wood
Yeah they're feeding on your empty veins

Oh, we didn't mean to raise the devil
Oh, but now he's knocking at your door
Oh, but now that you're king
Angels can sing, colours in spring
Now that you're king, lamb in the shadow

Be who you are and side with the dark
There are roses that grow
Yeah, they're eating up your ugly veins
The wolves have your heart
Was black from the start
There's light through the wood
Yeah, it's filling up your empty veins

Oh, we didn't mean to raise the devil
Oh, but now he's knocking at your door
Oh, but now that you're king
Angels can sing, colours in spring
Now that you're king, lamb in the shadow
Lamb in the shadow

Black veins

Oh, we didn't mean to raise the devil
Oh, but now he's knocking at your door
You fear no more
He's at your door
You fear no more
Bring me my crown
