

Hope in Hell

Black Pistol Fire

Was hoping no one noticed
This heart was left wide open
You walked right up and stole it
And Lord I should of known it

It's over now, you see
You keep pulling at my seams
Fuck you and the horse you rode in on
Down on my luck but I never really had none
I soften up the blow, it's all for show
It's useless to try

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
Lose, lose

I try to keep from going under
My days are looking numbered
I took a second, now I'm broken
This life I'm barely ever holding

It's over now, you see
You keep pulling at my seams
Fuck you and the horse you rode in on
I'm down on my luck but I never really had none
I soften up the blow, it only goes for show
Useless to try

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose

We ain't got but a hope in hell
Same old lie that you know so well
We ain't got but a hope in hell
Same old lie that you know so well

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
All in my mind, I think you've got that too
Lose, lose
You can have it all, but how much do you wanna lose

Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose
Lose, lose
