Never Enough

Black Pistol Fire

Slow down, bit the dust
Shake rattle with the rust
Put up or shut up
Always wanna cut up
Worse off than I thought I was
This Time you better be sure
Careful what you wish for
I'm bored to tears with this so on and so forth
Seek me out when the tide turns red
Every now and then, the Devil needs a rest
Over and over the same morbid story

Still stuck in the past
So you double down or double back
Choose your words
They might just be your last

Whatever helps you
Sleep through the night
Keep this in mind
Wake up to find
What's waiting on the other side
We come alive
This dead of night
No word of lie

Cut all your ties
With tomorrow, it's just one step behind
Your days are numbered
Out of sight and out of mind
Don't think for a second
I'm going to let you have the last word
I'm bored to tears with this so on and so forth
No shadow of doubt
When the walls they're gonna come down
Over and over the same morbid story

Still stuck in the past
So you double down or double back
Choose your words
They might just be your last

Whatever helps you
Sleep through the night
Keep this in mind
Wake up to find
We come alive
This dead of night
No word of lie
What's waiting on the side

I need a pick me up
Enough to keep me just
A little fucked up
No it's never enough no
I need a pick me up

Enough to keep me just

Not never enough, not never enough

Broke down stuck in the past
You double down or double back

Whatever helps you
Wake up to find
We come alive
This dead of night
No word of lie

I need a pick me up
A little fucked up
I need a pick me up
A little fucked up

Not never enough
Not never
