

Chronicles Of A Diamond

Black Pumas

Look at the how the waves they crash
I yearn to get high like them seagulls fly
I look at how the pretty girls walk by
Dreaming I'm in love for the first time
Darling, look how my heart goes boom, bam
I'm leaning on the music majesty
I break like a golden chalice
'Cause in a different kind of golden palace

If you wanna win
Bad as you wanna breathe
Out in these waters, baby
Shall, ooh
Then the tide will sing
I dub thee, Cash is king
Before your soul is faded
Shall, ooh

I look at how the world keeps spinning
I learn to get around on the neighborhood
I'm the voice of the diamond trailing
On a '77 Cadillac
Profound when I'm Cali-dreaming
Chiefing on some holy ghost I found
Look at how the flame keeps flaming
I feel I'm in love for the first time

If you wanna win
Bad as you wanna breath
Out in these waters, baby
Shall, ooh
The tide will sing
I dub thee, Cash is king
Before your soul is faded

It's hard to get yourself together, baby
Left side chilling, cruising on the right now
When I'm running on E and I'm tired, got to meditate, child
I'm calling up the crew, and I'm sorry, but I'ma celebrate now
Let's sail around the block
The block
Twenty-five years dreaming like the diamond in the back

I wanna win
Bad as you wanna breath
Out in these waters, baby
Shall, ooh
The tide will sing
I dub thee, Cash is king
Before the soul is faded
