

Mrs. Postman

Black Pumas

Every tomorrow brings sunshine in my neighborhood
Since you've been in it
Ohhhhh
Here comes Mrs. Postman
She's decked up in blue
And a message from her spirits, high descendant
Ohhhh oh Mrs. Postman
This commonality won't let her be fooled by low conditions
Ohhhh oh
Says Mrs. Postman
Your love reside in me
But tell the feathers seem to flock together
Ohhhh oh
Mrs. Postman showed up

To be honest, you hold the sunlight
With your presence in the morning time
And that's alright
To be modest, an operation
Effervescence makes my heart sing
Mrs. Postman
And no hesi-no hesitation, come offended, break your stride today
Day or night, be alright

Cuz it's alright
Little birds sing to remind me
That in the clouds all the rain will shine
Night coming morning

Every tomorrow brings sunshine in my neighborhood
Since you've been in it
Ohhh oh
Here comes Mrs. Postman
She's thicker than blue blood
And a message from her spirit's high descendant
Ohhh oh
It's Mrs. Postman
This commonality won't let her be fooled by low conditions
Ohhh oh
Says Mrs. Postman, your love reside in me
But every feather seem to flock together
Ohhh oh
Mrs. Postman

If you want it, go and get it
You can have it, Mrs. Postman
That's alright
Can we spark it effervescence?
Let the flame burn
Mrs. Postman, right on

When it rains just know that every little thing is alright
All the same I know that everything will be right on time
When it rains just know that every little thing is alright
All the same I know that everything will be right on time

When it rains just know that every little thing is alright

All the same I know that everything will be right on time
All the same I know that everything will be right on time
