In for the Kill

Black Sabbath

Thunder shattered the dawn
Raging with fury, the king has come
The power of terror will reign
There is no mercy in pleading

In for the kill, no quarter be shown Live for the thrill of battle alone Blessed by the will to die for the throne In for the kill In for the kill

Freedom is taken by storm
The blood on his hands
Is still running warm
The power of terror will reign
There is no mercy in pleading

In for the kill, no quarter be shown Live for the thrill of battle alone Blessed by the will to die for the throne In for the kill For the kill

Thunder shattered the dawn
Raging with fury, the king has come
Death and destruction riding the storm
Blood on his hands still running warm
In for the kill
The king has come
