

Poisoned Heart

Black Star Riders

You've got a poisoned heart
Salt and sugar look the same
You've got a poisoned heart
It's all or nothing in this game

Well I think I've finally figured it out
What's been going on
You talked the whole way through the movie
Spoiled the show for everyone
You can't jaywalk your way out of this
With all your swagger and your sway
You can dish it out alright
But you can't take it back watch what you say

I was never good at second chances
I was never good at telling lies
I was always good at being honest
I was always good at goodbyes

You've got a poisoned heart
Salt and sugar look the same
You've got a poisoned heart
It's all or nothing in this game

You're a satellite that's gone too far
You're way out of reach
When the day and night get crazy
Your all the minutes in between
Your friends don't need it, they can't believe
How much you complain
Don't blame it on karma, don't blame it on me
Don't blame it on Cain

I was never good at second chances
I was never good at telling lies
I was always good at being honest
I was always good at goodbyes

You've got a poisoned heart
Salt and sugar look the same
You've got a poisoned heart
It's all or nothing in this game

I was never good at second chances
I was never good at telling lies
I was always good at being honest
I was always good at goodbyes

You've got a poisoned heart
Salt and sugar look the same
You've got a poisoned heart
It's all or nothing in this game

You've got a poisoned heart
