

Right To Be Wrong

Black Star Riders

I'm gonna kick in your door (you better believe it)
Nail your guts to the floor (you better believe it)
Raise a holler and fuss (you better believe it)
I'm alive and dangerous (you better believe it)
When everything changes into nothing new

I got a right to be wrong
I got a right to sing this song
I got a right to be wrong

Well it's now or never (you better believe it)
I've been ready forever (you better believe it)
I'm gonna stand my ground (you better believe it)
Until you comes around (you better believe it)
When everything changes into nothing new

I got a right to be wrong
I got a right to sing this song
I got a right to be wrong

I know your smiling wherever you are
We're gonna put up a fight
Take it from the streets
Send into the stars
This is the soundtrack to our lives

I'm gonna kick in your door (you better believe it)
Nail your guts to the floor (you better believe it)
Raise a holler and a fuss (you better believe it)
I'm alive and dangerous (you better believe it)
When everything changes into nothing new

I got a right to be wrong
I got a right to sing this song
I got a right to be wrong
