

The Main Thing Is To Keep The Main Thing The Main Thing

Black Star

Automatic

Automatic, hey

Automatic, uh

Automatic, uh

Automatic, automatic, automatic, ha

Automatic as an automatic, ha

I'm automatic as a meditation, ha

Automatic as a trail of tears, ha

Alright, this way, try and feel, ha

The rogue soul don't be the light, ha

Shed the light into the darkroom, ha

The light is not afraid that part, ha

Gang-gang variates dream team, ha

The local dream time always, ha

The address on Spectrum Road, ha

From the rivers of the true and real, ha

Sense over sensation, ha

Sweating on a hot template, ha

Twenty cell panorama, ha

Silence of the clarion call, ha

Waveforms bird songs, ha

Recognition is invitation, ha

Grace the gift you couldn't earn, ha

Thanks again, report the work, ha

Not for free, freedom, ha

How you made it? Ask yourself, ha

Look to everything that you desire

Look at the conditions that it's put you in, ha

Through the honest math passive figures, ha

Pass the fixers, friendly neighbor, ha

Freshest labor, marry his native, ha

Local time, all ages

Forever is the current event (The future)

Life on this side is quick, quick

Trade trick, sorcerer

Insecure, synonym

Frankenstein tryna get estranged, ha

An ancient source matter strange enough, ha

I heard Dilla say "Turn it up", ha

I heard him twice when he said it first

And that's automatic, automatic, automatic

Automatic, automatic

Everything is not for sale

Everybody pays a price

Cocaine cracker than a honkey tonk

Trailer park trash can't trap house

All-time, all black everything

TMT fuck white supremacy

Cocaine cracker than a honkey tonk

Trailer park trash can't trap house

Star line, all black everything

TMT fuck white supremacy

TMT, TMT, TMT, TMT

What's white supremacy
Yikes
Mental illness
We bring the noise, you bring the gentle stillness
The trap door in the city is cat call
We with the shit, no need for the back and forth (it's a trap, I'm sure of it)
Let's get into it
Don't believe you superior to the darker races
Just means you inferior living darker places
God's amazing, we artists, this ain't a product placement, huh
Love is a spiritual technology
I give it up to God when they clap for me
I love to give credit where the credit due
It's beautiful, it's the struggle faced by the destitute
We celebrate diversity with carnivals and festivals
White supremacy automatically going against us
Huh, the third eye is the point of entry
Huh, Automatic like a reply from a hipster
Automatic as a Pointer Sister, ha
Tryna conquer us with the pestilence, ha
This is common as black excellence, ha
They rewarded for mediocrity, ha
Huh, I ain't begging for my equality
No, I'm too big to fail
Grab the bull by the horn then wag the doll by the tail
The OGs is in jail, the millennials is for sale
Am I dreaming or do our demons have tentacles and scales, ha
Automatic, automatic, cause of static
This a trust exercise like falling backwards
Gotta trust we your guys and we gon' catch ya

And that's automatic, automatic, automatic
Automatic, automatic
Everything is not for sale
Everybody pays a price
Yikes
