

Devil's Queen

Black Stone Cherry

Down on the muddy banks of the bayou,
At Magdalene's moonlit cabaret,
Captain reels in all his glory,
Sippin' whiskey and tellin' stories

Let's hear the one about the Devil's Queen

Welcome aboard the Devil's Queen,
Rollin' on the river all the way to New Orleans,
Mr. Johnson, that southern boy a playin on and on and on and on
Beelzebub is stealing your cards tonight on the Devil's Queen

The midnight crow calls us up from the ground,
The waters shine and the engines howl

All aboard, just come aboard

Welcome aboard the Devil's Queen,
Rollin' on the river all the way to New Orleans,
Mr. Johnson, that southern boy a playin on and on and on and on
Beelzebub is stealing your cards tonight on the Devil's Queen,
Yeah

All aboard, just come aboard

Welcome aboard the Devil's Queen,
Rollin' on the river all the way to New Orleans,
Mr. Johnson, that southern boy a playin on and on and on and on
Beelzebub is stealing your cards tonight on the Devil's Queen
