

Remember Me

Black Stone Cherry

Today was a long day, I found myself thinking about you.
Today was a hard day, I still can't believe that all of this true.

Today was a long day, I found myself thinking about you
Today was a hard day, I still can't believe that all of this true
But I'll remember what you said.

When I am gone will you stay strong?
Don't cry this is not a dream
When Heaven calls and stars they fall
Believe, will you remember me?
Will you remember?

I've got a feeling that you don't like these tears upon my face
. I will always remember the way you laughed at things that could not change.

It's something that I will never forget.

When I am gone will you stay strong?
Don't cry this is not a dream
When Heaven calls and stars they fall
Believe, will you remember me?
Will you remember?

Today was a hard day.

When I am gone will you stay strong?
Don't cry this is not a dream
When Heaven calls and stars they fall
Believe, will you remember me?

When I am gone
Don't you cry 'cause this is not a dream
When Heaven calls
Believe that you'll remember me
Do you remember?

Will you remember me?
