

Runaway

Black Stone Cherry

I've been feeling all alone,
I've had no one to lean on.
Losing sleep here waiting on a falling star,
to wish away the fear inside my heart.

Run, run away.
Don't have to pretend that I'm okay.
This is the day,
That I will lead my own parade.
Don't worry I'm fine,
I just needed some time, away.

Walking backwards in the sun,
Second guessing all that I've become.
I'm a rebel on the run from the truth,
I'm thinking I could use some help from you.

Run, run away.
Don't have to pretend that I'm okay.
This is the day,
That I will lead my own parade.
Don't worry I'm fine,
I just needed some time, away.

I've waited all my life,
I'm leaving here tonight.
It's something I've got to do.
No it's not goodbye,
'Cause I will see you soon.

I'm a rebel on the run,
You're a gypsy from the sun.
Let's run, run away.
Don't have to pretend that we're okay.
This is the day,
That we will lead our own parade.

Run, run away.
This is the day,
We are all okay.

Don't don't worry we're fine,
We just needed some time away.
We just needed some time,
All we need is time, away.
