

REEKYOD

Black Thought

I'm not sparing the rod. Not as long as I'm still inhaling air and alive
But listen... I'd barely arrived the fear of the god was awkward
People visibly aware of the vibe. They'll tell ya hush
Be on your best behavior tonight. You better stay prayed up
Pay your savior tonight. For me, it's just another day in the life in The darkness I used to be afraid of the light
I'm the night breed that know at any moment I might need
The light speed that make a hoe in a fight bleed
They say the root of all evil is light green
Make many a wife leave pursuing the right dream
Uh, I met a few on the last train from nowhere
The reason I reside in the fast lane is to go there
The roots crew flew to the moon and did a show there
My coat made of camel, the slacks is made of mohair
My calmness comes from knowing everything is harmless
The best mescal, cinnamon is for the oranges I dressed just now
I guess I'm sippin to the saga
The king Musa Keita, y'all father

They not seeing me- The YODFather
Facts so why bother
These slow cats needa go back try harder
On no sleep, fucking with me, You die martyrs
YOD is prime prodigy, they fire starters
Got the world open off my aura
And all the real pros know the flow is like water
Never sold keys them guys ballers, when they tied the score up
Only time they was OT with 5 quarters
Never wanted fame, I came to dissolve this Conspiracy theory and clear me of the false charges
(What else?) Rescue your ears from that HOT Garbage
Everything I spit shine, Imma get mine regardless
Made history without reporters
It's like that adage, if a classic drops in a forest
Heard somebody say Droog is not a complete artist
You better off trusting a man with three barbers
Then why your favorite dudes answering to me
Got em taking Q's (cues) like they tryna transfer to the B
It's bugged, Everybody's a thug, no fucking way
(I said) 3 point turns only time they bust a K
Heads ducking strays I'm going for the kill
Give a damn who got next, I was fresh before the deal
Wrapped and sealed, my orders fulfilled
Way I see it
I'm nine hundred and ninety-nine mill short of a Bill
