

Super Mario Rap

Black Thought

Shigeru Miyamoto hero, you can call me those
From where my inspiration comes, nodoby knows
But I kept my pockets double-stuffed like Oreos
Since creating the digital kingdom of the Marios
It all began on Donkey Kong
He was just a Jumpman gettin his monkey on
And tryna save Daisy, was makin him crazy
He's come a long way since those 8-bit 80's
But who knew in the future he be killin Gombas
And scoopin Princess Peach from King of the Koopas
We threw a cape on his back, and he became Super
These are the life and times of a mushroom trooper
His brother's a coward
Could be divine intervention from a higher power
But Mario defends Luigi spitting fire flowers
And it's weird that it's been all these years
Since he originally appeared, but Mario's still here
