Drowning in torment
My sanity's gone and my faith's been stolen
You cut me open
This wound is so deep and I'm left here choking
On the words I could never say
Need an out from this endless maze

I'm always chasing shadows
You left a mark in my soul
I'm livin' with your ghost

I'm growing weary
Desolateness is suffocating me
And your absence kills me
Will the sorrow ever set me free?
I still hear your voice breathe my name
A delusion that never ends

I'm always chasing shadows
You left a mark in my soul
I'm livin' with your ghost
Why do I chase these shadows?
A never ending illusion
I'm livin' in sorrow

I walk among..ghosts and shadows..

All I hear is you screaming my name This delusion will never end!

I am always chasing shadows
You left a mark in my soul
I'm livin' with your ghost
Why do I chase these shadows?
A never ending illusion
I'm livin' in sorrow
