

Black Uhuru Anthem

Black Uhuru

I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d
ead
Where minds are decreasing, from a distant culture
Where minds are increasing 'cause we're backing off vultures
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d
ead
Blessed be are the children of man, who together will overstand Blessed be the children of man, as numberless as grains of sand
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
Some building costly in the air
While so many others never get no share Depriving a human of their rights
It's a crime against the worst
Do I have to tell you about prison
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d
ead
Where minds are decreasing, from a distant culture
Where minds are increasing 'cause we're backing off vultures
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
I and I living out there, up full and bright I and I are the living dread in this here dawn of the living de ad
I and I art of the Maroon art, taught of the Maroon thought I and I trod the Maroon trod, in o' desolate places
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d
ead
I and I are the living dread, in this here dawn of the living d ead
Are the living dread, dawn of the living dead
Are the living dread, dawn of the living dead