

Devil

Black Veil Brides

How the fuck is one so evil left to just proceed?
All the luck and how deceitful that idle minds can be

Farewell to vanished fraud

So here comes the fall, your blood has all been washed away
You left with a crawl, the end was worth the wasted days
The devil lies alone

Come sell me useless greed and swindle lie and cheat
Cause nothing matters when the truth is only obsolete

Farewell to vanished fraud

So here comes the fall, your blood has all been washed away
You left with a crawl, the end was worth the wasted days
The devil lies alone

So here comes the fall, your blood has all been washed away
You left with a crawl, the end was worth the wasted days
The devil lies alone

So here comes the fall, your blood has all been washed away
You left with a crawl, the end was worth the wasted days
The devil lies alone
