

Faithless

Black Veil Brides

Behold the new hate with all the same lost values For sake what lives deeper in the death we're all believers Rise up your sirens, break through the silence We are united in the search for something more

Cross your heart, open your mind
Hide your face in their disguise

Even when I fall down to my knees
I never say a prayer I don't believe
And I don't wanna look up to the sun but I will never be the faithless one

No I will never be the faithless one

Refuse to destroy the altras we are serving The truth in living is that our souls are searching Live with defiance it's time to fight Don't ever let them keep your words from behind heard

Cross your heart, open your mind
Hide your face in their disguise

Even when I fall down to my knees
I never say a prayer I don't believe
And I don't wanna look up to the sun
but I will never be the faithless one

No I will never be the faithless one

Even when I fall down to my knees
I never say a prayer I don't believe
And I don't wanna look up to the sun
but I will never be the faithless one

Even when I fall down to my knees
I never say a prayer I don't believe
And I don't wanna look up to the sun but now I wanna be the faitless one

No I will never be the faithless one
And I will never be the faithless one
