

Kill The Hero

Black Veil Brides

They ask to hear your story and
Then they steal your voice
The villain gets the glory - we all suffer
Our idle hearts are bleeding up on a pedestal
It seems to keep repeating
Just another right turns to wrong turns to right

Kill the Hero
Fuel the venom and the sorrow
Now it's time to tear it down to the ground
Raise the torch, Lead us out and save tomorrow
Nothing's left, so Kill the Hero

So now it's dead and buried - it's us who fill the void
It's just the truth we carry until our last breath
We're the new blood in the same vein
There's a new sun in a dying day
Right turns to wrong turns to right

Kill the Hero
Fuel the venom and the sorrow
Now it's time to tear it down to the ground
Raise the torch, Lead us out and save tomorrow
Nothing's left, so Kill the Hero

We're only killing the ghost of your ego
Rise with the villains or die with heroes
We're only killing the ghost of your ego
Rise with the villains or die with heroes

Kill the Hero
Fuel the venom and the sorrow
Now it's time to tear it down to the ground
Raise the torch, Lead us out and save tomorrow
Nothing's left, so Kill the Hero
