

Saviour II

Black Veil Brides

I never knew how to live alone
Holding my fear in the unknown
And if we only speak in tongues how can we be heard?
Are there songs you keep to guard your heart?
Let this be the one you use to start your own
And every word that came from you has carried me

So I'm trying my hardest to be what you made, like a court jest
er my smile won't fade
Giving it all, rising to fall to my grave
Answer the call, living in thrall
You're the one born to save

I grew this heart in a motor car
I wear a mask to be the star
All of the heat and anxiety that still lines the road
It is all I ever thought I'd live for, now I know I'm more than all of my scars

So I'm trying my hardest to be what you made, like a court jest
er my smile won't fade
Giving it all, rising to fall to my grave
Answer the call, living in thrall
You are the one born to save

So I'm trying my hardest to be what you made, like a court jest
er my smile won't fade
Giving it all, rising to fall to my grave
Answer the call, living in thrall
You are the one born-

So I'm trying my hardest to be what you made, like a court jest
er my smile won't fade
Giving it all, rising to fall to my grave
Answer the call, living in thrall
You are the one born to save
