

Blue Sky

Black

You play to win
No looking backwards
Just throw the switch and step back
Looking like you're innocent
Do I have to let you know
That the game begins with you
When I know that somewhere, there is a blue sky for us?

On the outside from the outside looking in
You know where it ends but not how to begin
It's like you're in a dream
Do I have to let you know
That the game began with you cause I know that somewhere, there is a blue sky for us?

We're coming through
We fill the airwaves
Just throw the switch and step back
Grinning like you're in a dream
Do I have to let you know that the game
Begins with you
And I know
That somewhere
There is a blue sky
For us?
