

I Could Kill You

Black

But would you believe us?
Here I am together
Or stable as you say
But shacking at the inside
That woman did follow me
Jokers here I am again
Draw the bloody curtains
Now nothing is said now
I want to see the outside

This happened before
One year ago
His reversal
I wont change his goal

Diner on a bankrupt company
Now nothing is certain
I don't want to see the outside

Don't tell me not to hit her
As if I could be that way
But people come up distract me
From my shivering wisdom tree
This feeling wont lie down
Jokers here I am again
Tore the bloody curtains
Now nothing is said now
I don't want to see the outside

This happened before
One year ago
His reversal
I wont changes his goal

Diner on a bankrupt company
Now nothing is certain
I don't want to see the outside

Don't tell me not to hit her
As if I could be that way
But people come up distract me
From my shivering wisdom tree
This feeling wont lie down
Jokers here I am again
Tore the bloody curtains
Now nothing is certain
I don't want to see the outside

Diner on a bankrupt company
Now nothings is certain
I don't want to see the outside

Diner on a bankrupt company
