

The Love Show

Black

If I'd known
I might never have started
On my own
Though that's where the road was
That made my heart flip over
That made my blood run hot
That made my legs start shaking....

Fall into the arms of one who loves you
More than he can tell you
But knows
Where love flows he may follow
To the love show

If I'd known
I was not what I once was
Would I fall still
For the mess to abuse me?
I've got much better uses
Than what makes your thighs start aching,
What makes your blood run hot
What makes your heart flip over
Over and over and over and over

Fall
