

One Of A Kind

Blackalicious

One of a kind, verbal the mind wreck shop
Permanent kind, urgent to climb, pressed up Insertin the rhyme, it's workin on time, yessir
One of a kind...

Freeform fetish medicine for your headaches
We bomb fellas, better send for the medics
Napalm telepath tightrope walker
Stay on mellow as quite dope author
Night stalker, Charlie Mann's my man
Avid attic mic smoker out in Amsterdam
Black Barishnykov with the gift to floss
In fact you pissed me off and you gets the jaw smashed
This here's the rawness that ripped em off And wack shit gets dissolved as the gift revolves around earth space agent that'll rock ya pah
Have you runnin for your Gramps for a lil baklava Let me, talk to y'all bout some off the wall rapper wannabe in front of me that got the balls to not know who the G.A.B. be me
The nocturnal, elite MC, they flee from Ease on down the rhyme train trap design aimed at your mind, came back to shine, play it back
The time and days of the last breaths of life leave your spine ablaze when my ass bless the mic, c'mon

One!
One of a kind..
Let me, steadily, wreck the, melody Check the, Cherokee, techniques, varying every week, next week, instead of these head'll be like - let's see, exiting the next brain
Let's speak, hypothetically you are extremely extinct
I phonetically the hip-hop, be the best thing
By the power vested in me, I keep flexing
Now it's G-I-F to the T, come now, test me Gets things, done when I think and my thoughts distinct I'm the link in the lock that's missing
Find a pea in the pod that's glistening, shining, it's me History, in the making awakening this industry to this beat I'm christening it's sizzling
In this thing, intuitive thoughts just like gypsies

It's risky, when you want a bout with mic's Big Chief
I rip these, and do it out loud while y'all lip sync You pygmy, you'll never get rid of me, renege this against me inevitably y'all gon' dig me Essentially, incredible feat, of raw energy Immensely, embedded inside y'all intensely

One!
