

Emotions = shit

Blackbear

Intro

(Yeah, nah, nah, nah, nah)
Yeah, uh-uh, yeah, yeah

Verse 1

Ever since I met you, I'm a goner
I'm just waitin' for your mood to change
Ever since I met you, my days is darker
But every storm will someday run out of rain, uh
Look into my tired eyes, can't you tell you run me dry?
I just wanna sleep all day, tell me, "Baby, one more line"
You forgot, you didn't try, my head is filled with better times
I miss you, but we can't go there again

Pre-Chorus

'Cause we lost a whole year of our lives to each other, yeah
We lost a whole year of our lives to each other, yeah, yeah

Chorus

And the truth is really sinking in
You make my stomach feel like shit
I wanna get up off this ride and go home
I should've listened to my friends
Emotions really be some shit
Emotions really be some shit I can't do

Post-Chorus

I can't do, I can't do, I can't do (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I can't do, I can't do, I can't do, uh (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)

Verse 2

Ever since I met you, you're a martyr
How you gonna leave me out to die?
Ever since you met me, the days is harder
But what you feel right now, you can't feel all the time (Ooh, woah)
Look into my tired eyes, can't you tell you run me dry?
I don't wanna feel this pain, but I can't stop you if you try
Why you occupy my mind? You read my texts, you don't reply
So, in the past, I leave this shit to stay

Pre-Chorus

'Cause we lost a whole year of our lives to each other, yeah
We lost a whole year of our lives to each other, yeah, yeah

Chorus

And the truth is really sinking in
You make my stomach feel like shit
I wanna get up off this ride and go home
I should've listened to my friends
Emotions really be some shit
Emotions really be some shit I can't do

Post-Chorus

I can't do, I can't do, I can't do (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I can't do, I can't do, I can't do (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
