

[Intro]

I miss you, but I never really knew you at all
Forget you, here's to all the years with no calls
Run through all these thoughts in my mind
Fuck you, I love you at the same time

[Verse 1]

I love you, but it's fuck you, never really trust you
Another fuckin' birthday, I ain't heard from you
Tighten up my loose ends, clean the drugs from my head
Wake up feelin' sick, I sleep with demons in my bed

[Pre-Chorus]

Blank stares, blank chairs at every single table
Times we never shared that made me unstable
Wishing you were here because I need you now
You promised me that you would come around, yeah

[Chorus]

I miss you, but I never really knew you at all
Forget you, here's to all the years with no calls
Run through all these thoughts in my mind
Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time

[Post-Chorus]

Woah-oh
Woah-oh
Fuck you, I love you at the same time
Woah-oh
Woah-oh
Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time
(Love you at the same damn time)

[Verse 2]

I love you, but it's fuck you, never really come through
Pieces of my heart fallin' apart and comin' unglued
Heard you in a better place, only God could judge you
I love you, but it's fuck you (I love you, but it's fuck you)

[Pre-Chorus]

Blank stares, blank chairs at every single table
Times we never shared that made me unstable
Wishing you were here because I need you now
You promised me that you would come around, yeah, yeah

[Chorus]

I miss you, but I never really knew you at all
Forget you, here's to all the years with no calls
Run through all these thoughts in my mind
Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time

[Post-Chorus]

Woah-oh
Woah-oh
Fuck you, I love you at the same time
Woah-oh
Woah-oh

Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time

[Bridge]

Erase the parts of me I wish would die
The memories I made when you were alive
Now the only thing that really gets me through
Is knowin' that I'll be a better man than you
And if you wanna know the truth, the truth is

[Chorus]

I miss you, but I never really knew you at all
Forget you, here's to all the years with no calls
Run through all these thoughts in my mind
Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time

[Post-Chorus]

Woah-oh
Woah-oh
Fuck you, I love you at the same damn time
Woah-oh
Woah-oh
Fuck you, I love you at the same time
