Real niggas deserve to live twice

Classic fork and fried rice

He's gonna get his money baby

Photograph of my whips, autograph of your bitch

Cuban links for my gang, tech nines for my clique

Full auto boy right here, livin' like I went pro

Quarter mill' on my trips, bitches names in my notes

Nobody keeps it so real, niggas don't want that smoke

Babies can't think so clear, I'm in dieries as she wrote

Back seats in this bitch, rest in peace if you snitch

Niggas killin' for chips, and it won't be a glitch

I'd rather be dying than be going broke

I would rather die before I lose this though

Swear to God

How you finish shining with all that shade you throw, grow up

How you finish shining with all that shade you throw, grow up

You ain't shine if you don't learn to glo, glo up

You ain't shine if you don't learn to glo, glo up

You ain't shine if you don't learn to glo, get your dough up

You ain't shine if you don't learn to glo, glo up
