

Laid Out

Blackbear

Why start a war you've won,
Why start a war you've won,
Take me down the place I found you layin,
On the floor,
The chase and fear, the pace we steer is changing more and more
I'll chase you down the bad taste in my mouth,
Round and round we go,
You drown me out,
I'm still,
Bruised and torn,
We waged a war,
But I'm unsure what it's for,
Is it enough, is enough, have you had enough, oh,

Baby give me all your love,
Everything is laid out,
On the floor,
All your love, your love, your love,
Everything is laid out, laid out,
Everything is laid out,
On the floor, on the floor,

Why start a war you've won,
(You won you won, oh,)
Why start a war you've won,

I admit I admit,
I admit we had to face some shit but that's the past,
I admit I acted like a kid, that's enough of that,
I know this could last forever,
I surrender white flag,
Take your finger off the trigger,
Baby girl,

Baby give me all your love,
Everything is laid out,
On the floor,
All your love, your love, your love,
Everything is laid out, laid out,
Everything is laid out,
On the floor, on the floor,

Why start a war you've won,
Why start a war you've wo
