Blackbear

She's a part time model
Giving me that cold shoulder
Too hot too hollow
How'd you get so cold baby
Just a part time model
Shameless weekend soldier
Too much to follow
No based off your clothes baby

I'm dead today
I've been hanging from your words
I've been hanging from every word that you say
Dead today
I've been hanging from your wall
I've been hanging
I've been hanging, low key
I pray for all the wrong you could do to me, baby
Low key, I pray for all the wrong you could do to me
That's why I stay low
Like real low
Cause baby I know I can't hold you down
Lay low
Like real low
Cause baby I know I won't hold ya

Girl, how was you serious
We can't act the same around certain people
You're Hollywood curious
Addicted to fame, addicted to 'Cain
You got that experience, yeah
Girl why is you actin like I ain't see you naked
They saying almost famous
You ain't almost made it
One glass of champagne and she already faded

She's a part time model
Giving me that cold shoulder
Too hot too hollow
How'd you get so cold baby
Just a part time model
Shameless weekend soldier
Too much to follow
No based off your clothes baby

I'm dead today
I've been hanging from your words
Dead today
I've been hanging from your wall
I've been hanging
I pray for all the wrong you could do to me, baby
Low key I pray for all the wrong you could do to me
That's why I stay low
Like real low
Lay low

Like real low
