

Runnin' Low

Blackbear

She said, "how can I love you if you runnin around?
How do I know that you don't give your love to someone else?
How can I trust you when you're never around?
How do I know if we can't seem to work it out?"

What is the worst that can happen?
What is so different today?
Oh girl, what is the worst that can go down
Constantly changing things around
Breaking down every single noun that I say

I'm about to pull this car to the side of the road
And let you walk your own ass home
If you can't change your tone
We're gonna end up alone
I think it's starting to show
Our love is runnin low
Love is runnin low
Love is runnin low

How can I love you if it's never enough?
How do I know it cause
It don't seem like I have all your trust
How do I do it
This shit is burnin me up
How do I know it's time to quit it cause what's done is done?

Baby, baby, you don't get it
Just say it
I won't stay and I won't change for anyone
I gave you all that I could give
And I can't give anymore
I said
I won't
Do that dirt no more

I won't love you no, no more
Cause you just make me hurt more
So go with all your dreams girl
You don't treat me no good no more
And I don't wanna yell and scream bout the same damn things

Oh girl, what is the worst that can go down
Constantly changing things around
Breaking down every single noun that I say

I'm about to pull this car to the side of the road
And let you walk your own ass home
If you can't change your tone
We're gonna end up alone
I think it's starting to show
Our love is runnin low
Love is runnin low
Love is runnin low
