

Teenage Waste

Blackbear

The money, the power, the sex, the fame
The lies, the guilt, the pride, the shame
The drugs, the party, the rules, the game
The rock, the roll, the teenage, the waste.

Whoa, oh oh. Oh, oh. Oh, oh, oh.

The money, the power, the sex, the fame
The lies, the guilty, the pride, the shame
The drugs, the party, the rules, the game
The rock, the roll, the teenage waste.

Fuck your imagination, and all that you believe in.
Fuck all your reasons, and everything you dream of.
We are the drugs inside your head, yeah
We are the ones you won't forget.

We are the weakness in your knees,
we are your friends and enemies.
We like it better in the world when it's burning down,
better in the world when it's burning...

The money, the power (this is America), the sex, the fame
The lies, the guilty, the pride (we are the youth), the shame
The drugs, the party (can't we hook up), the rules, the game
The rock, the roll, the teenage waste (and teach me to shoot).

Wasted America, we are the kings.
Teach me to die, and teach me to...

The money, the power, the sex, the fame
The lies, the guilty, the pride, the shame
The drugs, the party, the rules, the game
The rock, the roll, the teenage waste.

The money, the power, the sex, the fame
The lies, the guilty, the pride, the shame

Fuck your imagination, fuck all you believe in.
It all means nothing now.
Fuck all your dreams, girl.
They will all thank you in a nice way.
So fuck your fucking status, and your money.
