

This Song

Blackbear

I made this song in my bedroom
Thinkin' 'bout all these fake motherfuckers
I don't give a fuck about a hater
I just throw my money money money up

In my truck driving through Los Angeles, I'm scandalous yeah
I don't care about anything
I just care about tonight

I know that this song
Will probably sound better when you're drunk as fuck
This song will probably sound better you're wasted
Shoutout to the haters, haters
Shoutout to the motherfuckin' player haters
yeah
Cause I made this song drunk you can't be that mad
(Cause I made this song drunk you can't be that mad) [x2]

I can't wait till you read the news
And you hear about me
Look up at the billboard and you see me
You think of first place, you think of my face
And the bottles and table, yeah it comes free
I'm feeling good
I got Patron in my tummy
And I work real hard but the wood work try to take from me
And the same dudes that claim they in my old crew
Put they heads down when I walk through
But I ain't sweatin'
Wasn't gonna put it past you
I'm just like you, hoping I did better than last year
And when this song come on I hope you turn it up
I dedicate this one to all the liquor in my cup
Let's go

This song
Will probably sound better when you're drunk as fuck
This song will probably sound better you're wasted
Shoutout to the haters, haters
Shoutout to the motherfuckin' player haters

Cause I made this song drunk you can't be that mad
(Cause I made this song drunk you can't be that mad) [x2]

I made this song in my bedroom

Yeah, wanna take a little second
Let you shake ya' ass
