

Toxic Energy (ft. The Used)

Blackbear

Intro: blackbear

From the moment that I met you
You had powers over me
Shoulda known
I shoulda known
You were toxic energy

Verse 1: blackbear

You're lonely, addicted
You clench your fists and quit it
I'm friends with your sickness
I'm tired of havin' to fix it
These white walls and white lines
Remind me of the bad times
Alone with you in revery
Erase me, forget me

Chorus: blackbear

From the moment that I met you
You had powers over me
Shoulda known
I shoulda known
You were toxic energy
You were lightning
You were cocaine
You were everything between
Shoulda known
I shoulda known
You were toxic energy

Refrain: blackbear

Woah-oh, oh-oh
Toxic energy
Woah-oh, oh-oh
Toxic energy

Verse 2: Bert McCracken

You're lonely, addicted
You clench your fists and quit it
Your bitter heart is freezing
Anxiety, thoughts fleeting
Can't fix you, remove you
From flames that consume you
You knew me, I knew you
I changed and outgrew you

Chorus: Bert McCracken

From the moment that I met you
You had powers over me
I should've known
You were lightning
You were cocaine
I should've known

You were toxic energy

Bridge: blackbear & Bert McCracken
Now I'm all alone in this big ol' house
I wonder if I'll ever make it out
I'm all alone in this big ol' house
I think it's gonna be a while
(I think it's gonna be a while)
(I think it's gonna be a while)

Breakdown: blackbear & Bert McCracken
I think it's gonna be a while

Refrain: blackbear
Toxic energy
Toxic energy
